

CLUB WINO 12

After a short sojourn, Club Wino is back and now we've made it all the way up to number twelve.

This one will take place downstairs at The Roadtrip and Workshop in Old Street on Saturday 8th April.

As the venue is what some might call bijou, there will be a slightly smaller bill than usual featuring your hosts, Neil Cowans and The Winos and our particular brand of countrified power pop 'n' roll. We've even got a couple of new tunes.

We will be accompanied by The Bakelite Space Programme, the rather marvellously named rock 'n' roll incarnation of Jonnie & Russ, who can rustle up a hell of a din, despite being just the two of them.

So, come join the fun at Club Wino 12, it's been a while and we'd love to see you.

Stay tuned for more rock 'n' roll,
